Pinances of County in Excellent Condition—Good Canning Senson.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
KING AND QUEEN C. H., VA., November 30.-The Board of Supervisors of this county held their last meeting Tu sday and adjourned sine die. Mr. S. S. Schools. chairman, was elected sheriff: Mr. W. I. Alien was defeated by W. T. Henley, and Mr. C. T. Beard declined to be a candidate. The new board will be composed of. Mr. Manly Broeddus, W. T. rienley and R. Foster Bland. Messrs. Broaddus and Henley have each served on the board before. The retiring board leaves the county treasury in good shape, all warrants on the treasurer being paid on presentation, and there is a balance of $2,500 in the hands of the treasurer.

"The Wall Street panic" is beginning to be felt even here. There are a great many sawmills operating in this county, and the depression in business has affected the lumber market seriously and quite a number of the mills have closed operations and others are contemplating doing so.

The Mantapike Canning Company had very successful season and have sold almost their entire output at good prices.
